

From: Nick Kohn
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/20/01 2:02pm
Subject: settlement

I am writing to you to ask that you seek harsher penalties against Microsoft. It is undeniable that they have committed numerous acts breaking the law. Many of them have not even been named in the trial. If the US government does not seek stiffer penalties (i.e. breakup), Microsoft will continue to break the law. In addition, other companies will follow Microsoft's example, knowing that there are no consequences to breaking the law. Thank you.

Nicholas Kohn
nkohn@umich.edu

934 S. State #2
Ann Arbor, MI 48104